Daniel,

I thank you and your colleagues for a clear statement about UC policies.

Sincerely,

Ken

Dear Dr. Kenneth L. Judd,

I am a Vice Provost for the University of Chicago and am writing with regard to your letter dated November 1, 2019 concerning the Journal of Political Economy. The University takes seriously matters pertaining to the publication process and free expression. Following a review of your claims, the University has determined that there has not been a violation of applicable University policies and considers this matter closed.

Best,
Daniel
